Each year at Christmas, we deliver over 1,500 Christmas Food Baskets to needy Indian families on the surrounding reservations. These baskets are nothing fancy, just basic food items to feed a family of four for about a week. The baskets include a turkey, stuffing, potatoes, rice, flour, raisins, and over a dozen other basic food items. To find out how you can donate one of these wonderful Christmas Food Baskets to a needy Native American family in the name of one of your friends or relatives, be sure to read our letter on pages 50-51!

The primary purpose of our catalog is to raise funds for our many philanthropic projects, as well as to provide a marketplace for authentic Indian-made jewelry, pottery, carvings, and other handcrafts. Due to the hand-made nature of these items, there may be some variations between the item as pictured and the actual item you receive. We also feature many other items such as books, CDs, DVDs, and apparel, which are not Indian made. All of the T-shirts we feature are printed and dyed here in America, while some of the other apparel is imported.

A. Maria of Ágreda – Definitive biography of 17th century mystic explores María of Ágreda’s exceptional spirituality which spread from her cloistered convent in 17th century Spain to the royal court in Madrid and beyond. Without leaving her village, the abbess impacted the kingdom, her Church, and the New World. Spanish Hapsburg King Felipe IV sought her spiritual and political counsel for over 22 years. Based upon her transcendent visionary experiences, Sor María chronicled the life of Mary, Mother of Jesus of Nazareth, in Mystical City of God, a work the Spanish Inquisition temporarily condemned. In America, reports emerged that she had miraculously appeared to Jumano Native Americans—a feat corroborated by witnesses in Spain, Texas, and New Mexico, where she is honored today as the legendary “Lady in Blue.” “Marilyn Fedewa has written a stirring portrait of María of Ágreda, a brilliant . . . remarkable player in major spiritual and secular events of [her] age.” — Kenneth A. Briggs, former religion editor for the New York Times

Large Cat Sculpture – #5045 (6½” Long) $54

E. Killers of the Flower Moon – In the 1920s, the richest people per capita in the world were members of the Osage Indian nation in Oklahoma. After oil was discovered beneath their land, they rode in chauffeured automobiles, built mansions, and sent their children to study in Europe. Then, one by one, the Osage began to be killed off. . . . In Killers of the Flower Moon, (a New York Times Bestseller and National Book Award Finalist), David Grann revisits a shocking series of crimes that eventually became one of the first major homicide investigations of the newly formed FBI. Based on years of research and startling new evidence, the book is a masterpiece of narrative nonfiction, as each step in the investigation reveals a series of sinister secrets and reversals. But more than that, it is a searing indictment of the callousness and prejudice toward American Indians that allowed the murderers to operate with impunity for so long. Killers of the Flower Moon is an utterly compelling work of non-fiction.

One of the critical challenges facing poor and isolated reservation areas is providing healthy activities for young people. The Tohatchi Fighting Back Program in Tohatchi, New Mexico provides children and adolescents with several recreational and community service-oriented projects to keep them engaged and challenged. Everything from cleaning and maintaining the senior citizens center, to delivering meals on wheels, to playing summer baseball gives these kids a fighting chance in a high risk environment. SWIF is proud to be the major sponsor of this vital program.

B. Buffalo Bird Girl – This fascinating picture book biography tells the childhood story of Buffalo Bird Woman, a Hidatsa Indian born around 1839. Through her true story, readers will learn what it was like to be part of this Native American community that lived along the Missouri River in the Dakotas, a society that depended more on agriculture for food and survival than on hunting. Children will relate to Buffalo Bird Girl’s routine of chores and playing with friends, and they will also be captivated by her lifestyle and the dangers that came with it. Using as a resource the works of Gilbert L. Wilson, who met Buffalo Bird Woman and transcribed her life’s story in the early 20th century, award-winning author-illustrator S. D. Nelson has captured the spirit of Buffalo Bird Girl and her lost way of life. The book includes a historical timeline.

A Hand Up Not A Handout

Over the past 50 years, the Southwest Indian Foundation has seen considerable growth. But we have always strived to maintain the original intent of our Franciscan founder. First, to recognize the great human potential of each individual; and second, to offer those in need a hand up — not a handout. The SWIF philosophy is strongly opposed to the “handout” approach. To our way of thinking, a mere handout destroys a person’s dignity and self-initiative. We believe that true charity must emphasize self-help in order to restore pride and independence. Only in this way can we truly build a better America for the First Americans.

A. Four Corners USA – Way out on the Colorado Plateau, two lines cross at right angles, forming the borders of four states. You can stand on this spot and be in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah all at the same time. This book is about the area roughly 150 miles around that point, a land of fantastic rock formations, ancient dwellings, and diverse cultures. Multiple national parks and monuments have been set aside to preserve the Four Corners wonders. And nature’s rainbow of colors paints these vast landscapes and barren badlands where sandstone rock sculptures grace majestic canyons. Join us in a tour of these remarkable places and learn the history of this unforgettable land and its people. “A beautiful and important book, packed to the brim with historical insights, useful tidbits for travelers, and, best of all, a profound appreciation for this unique part of America’s West. The stunning photographs dramatically reflect the majesty and mystery of this unusual landscape and the resilient people who call it home. This is a volume to savor from your armchair or to inspire a trip to see these places firsthand.” — New York Times best-selling author, Anne Hillerman #6964 (Softcover, 104 pp.) $17

C. Grizzly Bear Spirit Blanket – Sue Coccia is an award winning Northwest artist, from Edmonds, Washington. She deftly creates intricate pen and ink drawings, meticulously hand-painted with acrylic paints. Her art conveys her deep love and respect for animals, and helps her honor the thread of Native American heritage on her Grandmother’s side of her family. Using a full palette of brilliant colors, a keen eye for detail, and her lifelong love of animals, Coccia has created a stunning body of work. Be sure to look for her signature ladybug, incorporated into every image, representing good luck, happiness and prosperity. This high-quality Throw Blanket is proudly woven in America! #8455 (54” Wide x 70” Long) $75 Please allow 2 to 3 weeks for delivery.

B. The Mystery of Chaco Canyon DVD – Located in New Mexico, Chaco Canyon is one of the most extensive prehistoric ruins in America. For years archaeologists have assumed that Chaco was primarily an ancient trading center. Now, this nationally broadcast film (narrated by Robert Redford and first aired on PBS,) shows that Chaco was instead a complex ceremonial center, harmonized by extraordinary astronomical alignments of buildings and roads, and elegant light and shadow markings. Aerial and time lapse footage, computer modeling, and interviews with scholars show how the Chacoan culture oriented and located its major buildings in relation to the sun and moon. A fascinating documentary! #6932 (56 Minutes) $29

One Day At A Time

For over two decades, we have been the primary funding source for the Day At A Time facility located in Ft. Defiance, Arizona. Day At A Time was established to assist residents of the Navajo Nation suffering from alcohol and substance abuse addictions. DAAT works with individuals, families and the community to provide education in a variety of areas including alcohol and substance abuse, domestic violence, stress management, relationships, and communication. Currently, DAAT hosts 15 meetings per week—more than any other abuse facility on the Navajo Reservation.

B. The Star People – Sister Girl and her brother Young Wolf wander away from their village and soon find themselves far out in the surrounding prairie. They lie down in the grass and watch the clouds passing above billow to form an eagle, horses, and other creatures. Suddenly, animals begin to race past the children on the ground – followed by a wall of fire! Fleeing along with the frightened beasts, Sister Girl and Young Wolf save themselves by tumbling into a shallow stream. The fire leaves behind ash and a barren, forbidding landscape. The children realize that they are hopelessly lost. Night is coming, how will they get home to their parents? And why are the evening stars dancing so? Drawing upon traditional Lakota art, S. D. Nelson’s illustrations bring to life a memorable new legend about the Star People. #5369 (Hardcover, 36 pages) $18

Combination Stoves
When most people think of the Southwest, they conjure up images of palm trees and swimming pools. But here in the high desert where the Navajo Nation is located, elevations are higher than Denver and at night the temperatures can plunge well below freezing. That’s why we created our Stove Program, whereby we install safe, efficient Combination Wood/Coal Stoves for needy individuals and families. Our Navajo crew works year-round installing these combination stoves – please read the letter on pp. 50-51 to find out how you can help!

A. Sitting Bull: Lakota Warrior and Defender of His People – Sitting Bull (c. 1831–1890) was one of the greatest Lakota/Sioux warriors and chiefs who ever lived. From Sitting Bull’s childhood—killing his first buffalo at age 10—to being named war chief, to leading his people against the U.S. Army, Sitting Bull: Lakota Warrior and Defender of His People brings the story of the great chief to life. Sitting Bull was instrumental in the war against the invasive wasichus (white men) and was at the forefront of the combat, including the Battles of Killdeer Mountain and the Little Bighorn. He and Crazy Horse were the last Lakota/Sioux to surrender their people to the U.S. government and submit to living on a reservation. Celebrated author and illustrator S. D. Nelson interperses archival images with his own artwork, inspired by the ledger-art drawings of the nineteenth century Lakota. Through the art and riveting story, Nelson conveys how Sitting Bull clung to his belief that the Lakota were a free people meant to live, hunt, and die on the Great Plains.

Leave A Lasting Legacy
A last will or bequest is a beautiful way to leave a lasting legacy for your Native American brothers and sisters here in the desert Southwest. Each year, the Southwest Indian Foundation is blessed with wills and bequests from generous individuals like you that allow us to continue our critical work. From education and home renovation to alcohol rehabilitation and shelters for women and children — wills and bequests are a critical fuel for our many self-help initiatives. To receive more information on leaving the Foundation in your will, write us at: Southwest Indian Foundation, Post Office Box 307, Gallup, NM, 87305.

A. Our Lady of Guadalupe Blanket – On December 9, 1531, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a Mexican peasant named Juan Diego, leaving an image of herself imprinted on his cloak. This miraculous tilma survives today at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe near Mexico City, where 20 million pilgrims visit each year! We are proud to reproduce this miraculous image on this high-quality Blanket of 100% Cotton. This blanket is proudly woven in America using advanced Jacquard weaving techniques, ensuring vibrant colors and a rich, comfortable feel. #2916 (54” x 70”) $75

Please allow 2 to 3 weeks for delivery.

B. Wild Wisdom – A sort of Aesop’s Fables gone native, Wild Wisdom relies on a variety of scholars to retell traditional stories from the Diné, Zuni, Apache, Tohono O’odham, Sioux, and other cultures. An impatient coyote creates the night sky’s confusion of stars. The allure of a blue raven’s egg turns the Zuni people into desert dwellers. Hummingbird gathers nectar to heal fellow birds. Combined with strong artwork, each one makes for a fine bedtime story. — New Mexico Magazine #6950 (Hardcover, 104 pp.) $15

C. Ironwood Horned Toad – Continuing a traditional art form pioneered by the Seri Indians, this whimsical Horned Toad has been hand-carved from dense Ironwood by native artists still working and dwelling in the Sonoran Desert of northern Mexico. Small Horned Toad – #5052 (3” Long) $19

Large Horned Toad – #5053 (5” Long) $39

D. Kokopelli Spinner – Dazzling Kokopelli Spinner is made of solid metal with a copper transparent finish. Comes complete with swirl hook that allows the spinner to turn 360 degrees. Available in two sizes. #6271 (6” diameter) $19

#6275 (10” diameter) $29

E. Sharing the Skies: Navajo Astronomy – Sharing the Skies provides a look at traditional Navajo astronomy, including the constellations and the unique way in which Navajo people view the cosmos and their place within it. In addition, this book offers a comparison of Navajo astronomy with the Greek (Western) perceptions. Beautifully illustrated with original paintings from a Navajo artist and scientifically enhanced with NASA photography. #5361 (Softcover, 96 pp.) $16

A. Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes – This is the third edition of a comprehensive reference book that discusses more than 150 Indian tribes of North America, as well as prehistoric peoples and civilizations. From Abenaki to Zuni, this incredible work is organized alphabetically by Indian tribe or group. The informative, accessible text summarizes the historical record — such as locations, migrations, contacts with non-Indians, wars — and includes present-day tribal affairs. This revised edition updates tribal histories to the end of the 20th century. The book also covers traditional Indian lifeways, including diet, housing, transportation, tools, clothing, art, legends, and rituals, as well as language families. “...a first-class, accurate, well-illustrated reference work.” — American Reference Books Annual (270 original color illustrations, 11 color maps) #5241 (Softcover, 368 pp., 8 1/2” x 11”) $29

A. Black Elk’s Vision: A Lakota Story – Black Elk’s Vision provides a unique perspective on American history. Black Elk was a Lakota-Oglala medicine man who lived from 1863 until 1950. The cousin of Crazy Horse, Black Elk was involved in the battles of the Little Bighorn and Wounded Knee. He also travelled to New York and Europe as part of Buffalo Bill’s Wild West show. Most important, however, was the vision he had as a young boy which shaped his life. Through the medicine man’s own words, as well as historical documentation, author S.D. Nelson brings to life what it was like to be Native American in the mid to late 19th century and early 20th century. The native people found their land overrun by the Wha-shi-choos or White Man, the buffalo slaughtered for sport, and their people gathered onto reservations. Interspersing archival images with his own artwork, Nelson conveys how Black Elk clung to his childhood vision, which planted the seeds to help his people—and all people—understand their place in the Circle of Life. #6946 (Hardcover, 48 pages) $22

For over twenty years, the National Indian Youth Leadership Association has been active on our area reservations, providing leadership programs for young Native Americans. SWIF has worked closely with NIYLA in sponsoring camps, leadership workshops, CPR training, and search and rescue orientation. The philosophy of this program is to instill skills and confidence in our youth and teach them to become community servants. This is a rich and vital program especially in poor reservation communities where little in the way of positive outlets exist for young men and women.

B. The Ancient Southwest: A Guide to Archaeological Sites – Gregory McNamee guides you on a memorable tour through 50 national and state parks, monuments, and other cherished sites in the modern American Southwest. Simultaneously, he leads you far back in time to the era when the earliest human beings lived in what is now Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah. These ancient people left intriguing clues: pueblos, tools, pottery, jewelry, baskets, petroglyphs, pictographs, clothing, kivas, and weavings. From such evidence, archaeologists can reconstruct sophisticated cultures with advanced knowledge of astronomy, architecture, agriculture, and art. In more than 130 spectacular photographs, Larry Lindahl captures the essence of these remarkable locations, including Mesa Verde National Park, Canyon de Chelly National Monument, Navajo National Monument, Chaco Culture National Historic Park, Cedar Mesa National Monument, and many more. #5376 (Softcover, 96 pages) $17

A. Red Cloud: A Lakota Story of War and Surrender – S.D. Nelson, the award-winning author and illustrator of Black Elk’s Vision and Sitting Bull continues his picture-book biography series with Red Cloud, the story of one of the most controversial leaders in Native American history. A leader among the Lakota during the 1860s, Chief Red Cloud deeply opposed white expansion into Native American territory. He rejected treaties from the U.S. government and instead united the warriors of the Lakota and nearby tribes, becoming the only Native American to win a war against the U.S. Army. Despite his military successes, Red Cloud recognized that continued conflict would only bring destruction to his people. He made the controversial decision to make an agreement with the U.S. government, and moved his people to a reservation. The effects of his decision—as well as the conflicts that arose from those who rejected the agreement and continued fighting against white expansion, such as Crazy Horse and Sitting Bull—shaped much of the history of Native American relations with the U.S. in years to come. Featuring archival images and S.D. Nelson’s stunning illustrations, Red Cloud offers an authentic Native American perspective on one of the most pivotal eras of American history. S. D. Nelson has received praise and honor for his works. #6947 (Hardcover, 56 pages) $22

E. American Indian Healing Arts –
American Indian Healing Arts is a magical blend of plant lore, history, and living tradition that draws on a lifetime of study with native healers by herbalist and ethnobotanist E. Barrie Kavasch. At the heart of the book are more than sixty easy-to-use herbal remedies — including soothing rubs for baby, a yucca face mask for troubled skin, relaxing teas, massage oils, natural insect repellents, and fragrant smudge sticks. There are also guidelines for assembling a basic American Indian medicine chest.

A. Hiawatha and the Peacemaker – Born of Mohawk and Cayuga descent, musical icon Robbie Robertson learned the story of Hiawatha and his spiritual guide, the Peacemaker, as part of the Iroquois oral tradition. Now he shares the same gift of storytelling with a new generation. Hiawatha was a strong and articulate Mohawk who was chosen to translate the Peacemaker’s message of unity for the five warring Iroquois nations during the 14th century. This message not only succeeded in uniting the tribes but also forever changed how the Iroquois governed themselves—a blueprint for democracy that would later inspire the authors of the U.S. Constitution. Caldecott Honor–winning illustrator David Shannon brings the journey of Hiawatha and the Peacemaker to life with arresting oil paintings. Together, Robertson and Shannon have crafted a new children’s classic that will both educate and inspire readers of all ages. Includes a CD featuring a new, original song written and performed by Robbie Robertson. #5373 (Hardcover, 48 pp.) $22

Sleeping Beauty Turquoise Jewelry
One of the most sought after semi-precious stones, Sleeping Beauty Turquoise is revered for its pure sky-blue color. The Navajo were among the first to mine the stone, using hot coals to heat the boulders and then splashing them with cold water. The sudden temperature change would cause the boulders to fracture, exposing the prized turquoise beneath. In our jewelry pictured here, we have coupled the gorgeous sky-blue stone (mined in nearby Globe, Arizona) with classic Sterling Silver Beads.

Chief Manuelito

Legendary Navajo Chief Manuelito is famous for reminding his people that “Education is the ladder.” Since we first opened our doors in 1968, the majority of our funding has gone toward education, both in the form of block grants and individual tuition assistance. From the Jicarilla Apache Reservation in northern New Mexico to the White Mountain Apache Reservation east of Phoenix, we provide tuition assistance to deserving Indian children attending private mission schools.

Dear Friend,

For almost 30 years now, we at the Southwest Indian Foundation have made Christmas a priority. As the rampant commercialism associated with this special season has grown by leaps and bounds, we have attempted to move in the opposite direction — to get back to the basics. Instead of putting the emphasis on filling up shopping carts full of stuff that no one really needs, we have tried to put Christ back into Christmas by turning to our brothers and sisters who truly are in need. To turn our attention to those who are struggling just to put the next meal on the table.

So every year at Christmas, we reach out to some of these lonely families on the neighboring reservations and bring a little bit of Christmas to their door. Each year, we deliver thousands of Christmas Food Baskets and Christmas Stockings to truly needy families. We give priority to the elderly, the infirm, and to families with small children. Because of the vast area involved, we depend largely on the social workers and religious missionaries in each community to identify those families and individuals who are truly in need. We want to get it right and make sure that no one is overlooked.

Often, we accompany these social workers and missionaries to some of the homes in the surrounding areas. It is incredible how many tiny houses and hogans are tucked away in obscure corners of the Navajo Reservation.

But no matter how far you stray from the main road — children are still the same. And when you hand them a Christmas Stocking and a Food Basket and their faces break into a smile, it's always well worth the trip.

But what about this Christmas? Will we be able to supply another Food Basket for all the needy families? The names have been flooding into my office lately —

A Christmas Food Basket costs $58.60. A Half-Basket is only $29.30! Can you help me put a checkmark by one of these names?

Begody, Bitsilly, Begay, Redhouse. . . . With every name I can see those little faces looking up at me. Will some families have to be left out?

In addition to our Christmas Basket Program, we also strive to provide safe new Combination Wood/Coal Stoves for needy families at this critical time of year. With winter soon upon us, we are in a race with the clock to install as many safe, efficient combination Stoves as possible.

54% of Navajo homes burn wood for heating. But not necessarily in wood stoves. You see, some of my people cannot afford real stoves, and instead use sawed-off water barrels or other metal containers to try to contain the fire.

Buy a Food Basket or a Wood Stove
Every fall, I order dozens of brand new Combination Wood/Coal Stoves, hoping to install them before the bitter winds begin to blow — and also hoping to find someone like you to help us pay for them!

The cost of a Combination Stove is $539. Can you buy a Wood Stove for a poor Indian family?

Every year at this time, we concentrate on two critical areas — Food and Heat. At Christmas, we deliver over 1,500 Food Baskets to the neediest families on the reservations. And our Navajo work crew installs as many Wood Stoves as possible during these fall and winter months.

No family should have to go without food or heat. Think of the little children who have nowhere else to turn. Can you please help an Indian family this Christmas?

Give Two Precious Gifts At Once — Pledge a Food Basket or a Wood Stove On behalf Of a Friend or Relative!

Here’s how it works. With each Food Basket or Wood Stove that you purchase, we will send you one of our beautiful Southwest Indian Foundation Christmas Cards along with an envelope and Certificate that you can then fill out and send to your friend or relative, informing them that you have made this wonderful donation in their name!

What a beautiful gift for both the needy Indian family and that special someone on your Christmas list! And what a beautiful way to restore the true meaning of this blessed season of Christmas. But even if you can’t afford an entire Food Basket or Wood Stove — please, whatever you can afford will be a Godsend! Every dollar means a little more food or a little more warmth for some poor Native American family. Thank you and God bless you!

Sincerely,

Deacon Sherman Manuelito

For more than thirty years, the Southwest Indian Foundation has employed a Navajo work crew to conduct home renovations and weatherization for needy Indian families in the area. In addition to supplying the necessary labor, we also provide the raw materials, though we stipulate that the homeowners make an “in kind” contribution to the project as well. Moreover, we often serve as a catalyst with other non-profit organizations and Navajo Tribal entities to address “special needs” situations.

A. G I Joe: Navajo Code Talker — “Request Air Support!” “Attack by Machine Gun!” This dynamic, talking G I Joe speaks seven different phrases — in both Navajo and English! The complete equipment list includes a camouflage-covered helmet, web belt, hand phone set, backpack radio, shirt, pants, boots, and M-1 rifle. Also included in this Deluxe Edition (not available in any store or catalog) is a handsome 3” Embroidered Iron-On Patch featuring the famous silhouette of the Marines hoisting the flag on Iwo Jima and proudly identifying you as a “Junior Navajo Code Talker.” And to help you master the Code, we’ve also included a sturdy, laminated list of over 200 authentic Code Words (stamped “Top Secret – Confidential”) actually used by the original Navajo Code Talkers, including the English word, the Navajo equivalent, and the literal Navajo translation! Did you know the literal translation for “tank destroyer” is “tortoise killer”? Now you can write secret messages to your friends in Navajo Code! Not available anywhere else! #8322 (G I Joe: 11” Tall) $39

B. Warriors: Navajo Code Talkers – “My mother would not let me join the armed forces, she said I was too young (I was sixteen). Six months later I was drafted. I was trained as a code talker…” — Frank Chee Willetto. Meet 75 of the surviving Code Talkers through their personal stories and photos. A fascinating and beautiful book! #5317 (Softcover, 107 pp.) $20

C. The Navajo Code Talkers – Not only World War II buffs, but anyone with a sense of history will marvel at this incredible story of the Navajo Code Talkers. This dramatic, thoroughly researched work explores the unique contribution of Navajo Indians in devising and implementing a secret code using their native tongue — a code that was never broken. A moving story of human courage and purpose! One of our best sellers! #535 (Softcover, 170 pp., w/photos) $17

D. Navajo Code Talkers DVD – This brilliant and fast-paced video brings to life the compelling story of the Navajo Code Talkers whose amazing skills played a vital role in WWII from Guadalcanal to Iwo Jima to Okinawa. (55 minutes) #6933 DVD $29

E. Chester Nez and the Unbreakable Code – As a young Navajo boy, Chester Nez had to leave the reservation and attend boarding school, where he was taught that his native language and culture were useless. But Chester refused to give up his heritage. Years later, during World War II, Chester—and other Navajo men like him—was recruited by the US Marines to use the Navajo language to create an unbreakable military code. Suddenly the language he had been told to forget was needed to fight a war. This powerful picture book biography contains backmatter including a timeline and a portion of the Navajo code, and also depicts the life of an actual Navajo Code Talker while capturing the importance of heritage. #6963 (Hardcover, 32 pp.) $17

For nearly twenty years, the Air Force Academy and the Southwest Indian Foundation have been building hogan-style houses in Colorado Springs and transporting them to families on the Navajo Reservation — families who would otherwise have no access to a home without outside assistance. A few years ago, St. Michaels School for Special Education in Arizona put in a request for two of these homes that would serve as “independent living” quarters for their graduates. These specially challenged children have had difficult and often painful lives. St. Michaels has been their home. They are not equipped to go out into the real world on their own. However, they are able to look after themselves with some supervision. These custom-designed hogans will be placed at the school and used by the graduates of St. Michaels.

A. Over The Edge – As we know them today, the American Southwest, and the Grand Canyon that lies at its heart, are the product of vast natural forces over millions of years. But they were also created by one man’s vision and a railroad. The entrepreneurial genius was Fred Harvey. The Colt .45 revolver may have won the West, but Fred Harvey and the Santa Fe Railway made it comfortable. In the late nineteenth century, the Santa Fe opened up a strange, spectacular new territory to travelers. And Harvey followed, establishing restaurants, hotels, and shops. In Over the Edge, Kathleen L. Howard and Diana F. Pardue reveal in vivid detail how Harvey and the Santa Fe together created a vision of the Southwest that still works its magic today. As you read about the Kolb Brothers, Mary Colter, Elle of Ganado, the famous Harvey Girls, and the iconic railway that brought visitors in droves, you will also see the amazing photographs, postcards, pamphlets, menus, calendars, advertisements, and even matchbook covers that evoke the adventure and joy of that special time and place. Chock full of photographs! #5375 (Softcover, 152 pages) $22

Franciscan Spirit
Our assistance is limited to Native Americans, with priority given to the elderly, handicapped, and families with dependent children. We work primarily with the Navajo, but we also assist the various pueblo tribes in the area as well. Although we are a Catholic organization founded by a Franciscan priest, we are not a propagating arm of the Catholic Church. We assist all individuals that fall within our financial guidelines. We do not discriminate because of religious affiliation. Our charter is based on the “works of mercy.” Because there is hunger, because there is cold, because there is lack of shelter and clothing — these are the reasons we are here. We help because there is a need.

Cancer Outreach

Since 1987, Casa Esperanza in Albuquerque has been serving the families of cancer victims (in addition to other severe medical cases) by providing a low cost home away from home. At the Southwest Indian Foundation, we work closely with Casa Esperanza, picking up the tab for Indian families who must make the long trip into Albuquerque while a loved one is hospitalized. This is a dire situation for any family to endure. The more we can do to ease that burden, through transportation and lodging assistance, the better that family will be able to cope.

A. New Mexico Kicks On Route 66 – Route 66, affectionately called “The Mother Road,” opened in 1926 and was decommissioned in 1984, and played a prominent role in the transformation of the Nation. Now an international legend through popular culture and the arts, Route 66 has become the road trip of a lifetime. New Mexico Kicks on Route 66 takes you on a tour through all the fascinating places along the New Mexico stretch, steeped in the rich and diverse history of the Land of Enchantment. Author Martin Link guides you through time across the land populated by mammoth hunters, Pueblo farmers, traders, Spanish conquistadors, army cavalrymen, caravans of settlers, railroaders, and the scientists who created the atom bomb. Through Larry Lindahl's amazing images, you'll encounter museums full of classic cars, the Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial, a hot air balloon fiesta, and all the glitz and glamour of the Route 66 era in hotels, diners, and more. From the indigenous people who first developed the area, to the folks who envisioned and created America's Highway and to all the colorful personalities in between and since, this is a New Mexico historical guidebook like no other! #6951 (Softcover, 96 pages) $13

B. Arizona Kicks On Route 66 – Arizona is home to the longest intact portion of Route 66, stretching 158 miles from west of Ash Fork to the California border. In words and pictures, Roger Naylor and Larry Lindahl explore the history and nostalgia surrounding the Mother Road, and the great swaths of Arizona that it passes through. They describe a wealth of spectacular and easy side trips that surround the highway. The first thing that you notice is the photography. The collection of images alone is worth the price of the book. But don't skip the words. Naylor weaves a tapestry of descriptions and personal stories that is both engaging and humorous. Where else would you read a sidebar on the badlands of the Painted Desert and find the scene defined as “filled with mad, startling swirls of color, like Van Gogh emptying his pockets at the police station.” Arizona, the birthplace of Route 66, is where you can still get your kicks. #6952 (Softcover, 96 pages) $13

(#9619) Set of Both New Mexico & Arizona Route 66 Books $24

Housing Veterans
For more than two decades, we have been building new houses for indigent Navajo families and transporting them to home sites on the Reservation. In the summer of 2018, we will be partnering with the Navajo Nation to build 10 new houses for homeless Navajo Veterans. The Dine people have always been fiercely patriotic and they have a long tradition of serving in our military. No veteran should be homeless, and so we are proud to take part in this much-needed housing program, providing new homes for these veteran men and women.

H. Whispers Of The Wolf – “Ahrooooooo” went the cry. It was the call of the wolf pack. A young boy named Two Birds heard it, and so did his wolf. Two Birds had found the abandoned wolf pup, and they had grown up together. Now, the wild was calling, and Two Birds had a choice to make. Struggling with a mix of emotions, he must decide whether his love for the wolf is greater than his need to be near it. Will Two Birds learn to let go — not just of the wolf, but also of his own fears? Whispers of the Wolf is a beautiful picture book set around 500 years ago among the Pueblo Indians of the desert Southwest. A heart-warming piece of historical fiction, it weaves together themes of community, tradition, self-esteem, and respect for all life, creating a realistic portrait of a culture that continues to exert a vibrant, living influence today. Beautifully illustrated by Rosemary Lonewolf, an American Indian artist of the Santa Clara Pueblo Tribe.

H. Horsemanship Through Life – More than just techniques for horseriding, these are principles for a more fulfilling life. Here is a compelling meditation from renowned horseman Mark Rashid on all the ways that the principles we apply in our dealings with fellow humans can apply to our relationships with our horses, and vice versa. Horsemanship Through Life is about awareness, learning, teaching, honesty, integrity, and much more. It is about more than tips or technique; it is about principles to live by. It is about taking ownership of and responsibility for our lives and relationships with horses and humans. It doesn’t take long to read, but will be with you for life. Experience the profound lessons of this nourishing book! #6961 (Hardcover, 206 pp.) $25

F. The Mighty Colorado River – Here is your chance to take a trip down one of the world’s great rivers from its first trickle to its broad delta. Remarkable photographs show the West’s natural wonders, tracing the Colorado River and its major tributary, the Green River, from beginning to end. The rivers flow through many habitats from treeless tundra to coastal desert, encompassing millions of years of geological history. On their way to the sea, the Colorado and the Green bend through more than a dozen national parks, monuments, wildlife refuges, and recreation areas, and nourish wildlife from majestic moose to fifty-pound trout to tiny lizards. Enjoy descriptions of river communities and some of the best fishing holes and recreation areas along the way, as well as facts about glaciers, dinosaurs, miners, and mountain men. Ride along (staying dry all the way) through the vast Colorado River Basin, which covers more land area than Spain and Portugal combined, and of course through the unforgettable colors and vistas of the grandest canyon on earth.
#6953 (Softcover, 100 pp. large format) $19

Skate Park

In a remote reservation community forgotten by most of the world, the extreme conditions are everywhere apparent. The inspiration for a decent and safe skate park has come from our young people. In an environment filled with poverty, abuse, and sometimes despair, the young Native Americans in our region are often unable to just be kids. Many turn to skateboarding for creativity and comradesy. And so we were excited to take on this project and because of the generosity of donors like you – we brought it to completion in 2017, creating an exciting local outlet right here in Gallup for our young people!

A. The Trail Of Tears – This deeply moving, high-definition feature DVD documents the forced removal in 1838 of the Cherokee Nation from the southeastern United States to Oklahoma. The Jacksonian policy of removal led to a brutal, cross-country trek in which nearly a quarter of the tribal citizens died from hunger, exposure, disease and sheer exhaustion. Wes Studi, the well-known Cherokee actor (Last of the Mohicans), presents the documentary film, speaking on camera in his native tongue (with subtitles). Noted actor James Earl Jones, who is of blended African and Cherokee heritage provides the narration. They are supported by the celebrity voices of actor James Garner, singer Crystal Gayle, actor John Buttram and former Virginia Gov. Douglas Wilder reading original diary excerpts, while a host of historical experts from major universities provide commentary. #5288 (115 Minutes) $35

All children deserve a good education. San Carlos, Globe, Lumberton, Farmington, San Fidel, Laguna, Crownpoint — these are just some of the remote communities in Arizona and New Mexico where our schools can be found. For over 30 years, we have made education a top priority. We have 15 mission schools in and around the local reservations that we support both through school grants and individual tuition assistance. In a depressed and isolated desert region, a sound education is a child’s best friend.

Handmade Treasures

It's no secret that Native Americans are incredibly gifted artistically. But because of geographical isolation, it's often a problem to find a viable market to showcase their handcrafted goods. So in 1990, we launched the Indian Craft Catalog that you are holding in your hands. In addition to providing a national market for local Indian craftsmen, the profits from this catalog go directly back to the Native Americans themselves in the form of the many philanthropic programs that SWIF sponsors and supports. As we like to say: “Made in America – By the First Americans.”

Wolf at the Door

Winters in the high desert can be brutal. That’s why we created our Stove Program, whereby we install safe, efficient Combination Wood/Coal Stoves for needy individuals and families on the surrounding reservations. Our Navajo crew works year-round installing these combination stoves, ensuring that no one is left out in the cold. To find out how you can donate one of these wonderful Combination Stoves to a needy Native American family in the name of one of your friends or relatives, be sure to read the letter on pp. 50-51 in this handcraft catalog!

For over three decades, the Southwest Indian Foundation has worked closely with the local Battered Families shelters. Sadly, domestic violence is a fact of life. Our work with Battered Families has its focus on relocating those who have been traumatized by domestic violence. This often involves expenses in the areas of rent assistance, utilities, and transportation. For mothers and children, a secure haven from a threatening situation is the most important gift of all.

C. Gift Horse – An action-packed coming-of-age story, Gift Horse is a wonderfully evocative introduction to 19th-century Native American life on the Great Plains. When his father gives him a gift horse, marking the beginning of his journey to manhood, Flying Cloud and the horse, Storm, spend their days hunting and roughhousing with the other boys and their horses. But when an enemy raiding party steals his beloved Storm, Flying Cloud faces the ultimate rite of passage. He must join the rescue party and earn the right to wear the shirt of a warrior. Bold, colorful artwork inspired by the style of the early Plains Indians illustrates the day-to-day life of the Lakota and tells the story of a boy accepting the challenges of manhood. An author’s note gives a brief history of the Lakota and explains the traditions discussed in the story.

Navajo Code Talkers

It was one of the best kept secrets of World War II. For over 23 years, their special mission retained a “top secret” classification. They are the Navajo Code Talkers. The Navajo made an invaluable contribution to the War through the development of the Navajo language as a secret code that proved indecipherable to the enemy. Major Howard M. Connor, communications officer for the Fifth Marine Division commented, “Without the Navajos, the Marines would never have taken Iwo Jima.” We salute their remarkable achievement!

A. National Geographic Kids Encyclopedia of American Indian History and Culture: Stories, Timelines, Maps, and More – More than 160 tribes are featured in this outstanding new encyclopedia, which presents a comprehensive overview of the history of North America’s Native peoples. From the Apache to the Zuni, readers will learn about each tribe’s history, traditions, and culture, including the impact of European expansion across the land and how tribes live today. Features include maps of ancestral lands; timelines of important dates and events; fact boxes for each tribe; bios of influential American Indians such as Sitting Bull; sidebars on daily life, homes, food, clothing, jewelry, and games; Did You Know facts with photographs; and traditional Native stories. The design is compelling and colorful, packed with full-color photographs. To help give kids the lay of the land, this reference is arranged by region, and all federally recognized tribes are included. Tribal members representing each region and experts at the National Museum of the American Indian at the Smithsonian Institution were involved in its creation. With nothing comparable available, it is sure to be a valuable resource for kids, students, librarians, and families. #6968 (Hardcover, 322 pp.) $29

A. Stand In The Light: Native Voices Illuminated by Edward S. Curtis – In a perfect partnership, the songs, prayers, and philosophies of eight western American Indian tribes are paired with photographs taken by the incomparable Edward S. Curtis. This carefully curated collection is an inspirational and educational journey of respect for Indian cultures, ideals, and images. The beautiful historical pictures included in this book are by the photogravure artist, Edward Sheriff Curtis. Between 1900 and 1927, Curtis visited eighty tribes across North America and took more than 40,000 photographs, recorded songs and stories, and interviewed tribal leaders. The accompanying beautiful words are the prayers, songs, and wisdom of the peoples included in this book. From father to son, mother to daughter, and grandparents to grandchildren, ancient stories and lessons are handed down through generations. #6970 (Hardcover, 192 pp.) $17
