To Our Customers

The primary purpose of our catalog is to raise funds for our many philanthropic projects, as well as to provide a marketplace for authentic Indian-made jewelry, pottery, carvings, and other handcrafts. Due to the handmade nature of these items, there may be some variations between the item as pictured and the actual item you receive. We also feature many other items such as books, CDs, DVDs, and apparel, which are not Indian made. All of the T-shirts we feature are printed and dyed here in America, while some of the other apparel is imported.

Our assistance is limited to Native Americans, with priority given to the elderly, handicapped, and families with dependent children. We work primarily with the Navajo, but we also assist the various pueblo tribes in the area as well. Although we are a Catholic organization founded by a Franciscan priest, we are not a propagating arm of the Catholic Church. We assist all individuals that fall within our financial guidelines. We do not discriminate because of religious affiliation. Our charter is based on the “works of mercy.” Because there is hunger, because there is cold, because there is lack of shelter and clothing — these are the reasons we are here. We help because there is a need.

Navajo Crafted Jewelry – Showcase your boho style with these authentic hand-stamped Navajo-crafted Turquoise Dangle Earrings. The beautiful patina finish accentuates the ornate detail and contrasts wonderfully with the polished natural Turquoise Stones.

F. Life Lessons From A Ranch Horse – In this second edition of the beloved title, with a new brand-new afterword, Rashid invites us to enjoy his all-new reflections on the lessons learned from a life spent with horses. In this heartwarming and instructive book of horsemanship, highly-respected horse trainer Mark Rashid shares what he learned from a very special, and very challenging, horse. Through a lot of hard work, Mark comes to understand the potential for powerful communication that exists when two beings take the time to understand each other. Although his realizations are inspired by work with horses, readers will discover that Rashid’s six guidelines for interaction can improve our relationships with the people in our lives as well. #6960 (Softcover, 224 pp.) $19

B. Maria of Ágreda – Definitive biography of 17th century mystic explores María of Ágreda’s exceptional spirituality which spread from her cloistered convent in 17th century Spain to the royal court in Madrid and beyond. Without leaving her village, the abbess impacted the kingdom, her Church, and the New World. Spanish Hapsburg King Felipe IV sought her spiritual and political counsel for over 22 years. Based upon her transcendent visionary experiences, Sor María chronicled the life of Mary, Mother of Jesus of Nazareth, in Mystical City of God, a work the Spanish Inquisition temporarily condemned. In America, reports emerged that she had miraculously appeared to Jumano Native Americans—a feat corroborated by witnesses in Spain, Texas, and New Mexico, where she is honored today as the legendary “Lady in Blue.” “Marilyn Fedewa has written a stirring portrait of María of Ágreda, a brilliant . . . remarkable player in major spiritual and secular events of [her] age.” — Kenneth A. Briggs, former religion editor for the New York Times #6967 (Softcover, 337 pp.) $29

COVID-19 Response

In May of 2020, the Navajo Nation passed New York state as having the highest coronavirus infection rate in the country, per capita. In spite of state and local lockdowns, early on the Southwest Indian Foundation was declared an “essential service” and since then we have been striving to serve as many individuals and families as possible, giving special consideration to the elderly and handicapped. Working with local food banks and social services, we have been making daily emergency food deliveries to remote parts of the Navajo Reservation, ensuring that no one is overlooked during this time of crisis.

A. Red Cloud: A Lakota Story of War and Surrender – S.D. Nelson, the award-winning author and illustrator of Black Elk’s Vision and Sitting Bull continues his picture-book biography series with Red Cloud, the story of one of the most controversial leaders in Native American history. A leader among the Lakota during the 1860s, Chief Red Cloud deeply opposed white expansion into Native American territory. He rejected treaties from the U.S. government and instead united the warriors of the Lakota and nearby tribes, becoming the only Native American to win a war against the U.S. Army. Despite his military successes, Red Cloud recognized that continued conflict would only bring destruction to his people. He made the controversial decision to make an agreement with the U.S. government, and moved his people to a reservation. The effects of his decision—as well as the conflicts that arose from those who rejected the agreement and continued fighting against white expansion, such as Crazy Horse and Sitting Bull—shaped much of the history of Native American relations with the U.S. in years to come. Featuring archival images and S. D. Nelson’s stunning illustrations, Red Cloud offers an authentic Native American perspective on one of the most pivotal eras of American history. S. D. Nelson has received praise and honor for his works.

E. A Handbook of Native American Herbs – This authoritative guide — based on the author’s classic reference work, Indian Herbology of North America — is a portable illustrated companion for the professional and amateur herbalist alike. It provides detailed descriptions of 125 of the most useful medicinal plants commonly found in North America, along with directions for a range of uses, remedies for common ailments, and notes on the herbal traditions of other landas. Entries include staples of folk medicine such as echinacea and slippery elm as well as common kitchen herbs — such as parsley, thyme, and pepper — whose tonic and healing properties are less widely known.

F. The Big Book of Backyard Medicine – The most thorough compilation of home cures and remedies yet! Years ago, every household practiced natural healing by using what they had. Plants grow abundantly all over our roadsides, cities, and in our own backyards, and though once valued and widely used, they've fallen out of fashion over time as people forget the numerous medicinal uses at our fingertips. This book brings alternative medicine back to the forefront. Researched and written by a practicing medical herbalist and natural healer, and now with even more herbs and medicinal plants, The Big Book of Backyard Medicine is the basis for a veritable natural pharmacy that anyone can create. Featuring one hundred specific plants and their associated remedies, and fully illustrated with hundreds of color photographs, this book offers fascinating insights into the literary, historic, botanical, and global applications of common wild plants and herbs that can be used in medicines. Anyone who wants to improve his or her health in a completely natural way will find this book to be an absolute must-have for his or her home—and garden.

Cancer Outreach

Since 1987, Casa Esperanza in Albuquerque has been serving the families of cancer victims (in addition to other severe medical cases) by providing a low cost home away from home. At the Southwest Indian Foundation, we work closely with Casa Esperanza, picking up the tab for Indian families who must make the long trip into Albuquerque while a loved one is hospitalized. This is a dire situation for any family to endure. The more we can do to ease that burden, through transporation and lodging assistance, the better that family will be able to cope.

A. Sitting Bull: Lakota Warrior and Defender of His People – Sitting Bull (c. 1831–1890) was one of the greatest Lakota/Sioux warriors and chiefs who ever lived. From Sitting Bull’s childhood—killing his first buffalo at age 10—to being named war chief, to leading his people against the U.S. Army, Sitting Bull: Lakota Warrior and Defender of His People brings the story of the great chief to life. Sitting Bull was instrumental in the war against the invasive wasichus (white men) and was at the forefront of the combat, including the Battles of Killdeer Mountain and the Little Bighorn. He and Crazy Horse were the last Lakota/Sioux to surrender their people to the U.S. government and submit to living on a reservation. Celebrated author and illustrator S. D. Nelson intersperses archival images with his own artwork, inspired by the ledger-art drawings of the nineteenth century Lakota. Through the art and riveting story, Nelson conveys how Sitting Bull clung to his belief that the Lakota were a free people meant to live, hunt, and die on the Great Plains. #5374 (Hardcover, 56 pages) $22

E. Stand In The Light: Native Voices Illuminated by Edward S. Curtis – In a perfect partnership, the songs, prayers, and philosophies of eight western American Indian tribes are paired with photographs taken by the incomparable Edward S. Curtis. This carefully curated collection is an inspirational and educational journey of respect for Indian cultures, ideals, and images. The beautiful historical pictures included in this book are by the photogravure artist, Edward Sheriff Curtis. Between 1900 and 1927, Curtis visited eighty tribes across North America and took more than 40,000 photographs, recorded songs and stories, and interviewed tribal leaders. The accompanying beautiful words are the prayers, songs, and wisdom of the peoples included in this book. From father to son, mother to daughter, and grandparents to grandchildren, ancient stories and lessons are handed down through generations. #6970 (Hardcover, 192 pp.) $17
A. National Geographic Kids Encyclopedia of American Indian History and Culture: Stories, Timelines, Maps, and More – More than 160 tribes are featured in this outstanding new encyclopedia, which presents a comprehensive overview of the history of North America’s Native peoples. From the Apache to the Zuni, readers will learn about each tribe’s history, traditions, and culture, including the impact of European expansion across the land and how tribes live today. Features include maps of ancestral lands; timelines of important dates and events; fact boxes for each tribe; bios of influential American Indians such as Sitting Bull; sidebars on daily life, homes, food, clothing, jewelry, and games; Did You Know facts with photographs; and traditional Native stories. The design is compelling and colorful, packed with full-color photographs. To help give kids the lay of the land, this reference is arranged by region, and all federally recognized tribes are included. Tribal members representing each region and experts at the National Museum of the American Indian at the Smithsonian Institution were involved in its creation. With nothing comparable available, it is sure to be a valuable resource for kids, students, librarians, and families. #6968 (Hardcover, 322 pp.) $29

In 1987, the Southwest Indian Foundation provided a substantial grant to help build a nursing home facility here in Gallup that would serve the elderly Navajo population. This wonderful home has 42 beds and is conducted by the Little Sisters of the Poor. The Little Sisters of the Poor was founded in France in 1839 by St. Jeanne Jugan. Today, the Order has several hundred nursing homes worldwide. These dedicated Sisters create a cheerful atmosphere of love and care and dignity – a true home for these aging men and women.

A.  Encyclopedia of Native American Tribes – This is the third edition of a comprehensive reference book that discusses more than 150 Indian tribes of North America, as well as prehistoric peoples and civilizations. From Abenaki to Zuni, this incredible work is organized alphabetically by Indian tribe or group. The informative, accessible text summarizes the historical record — such as locations, migrations, contacts with non-Indians, wars — and includes present-day tribal affairs. This revised edition updates tribal histories to the end of the 20th century. The book also covers traditional Indian lifeways, including diet, housing, transportation, tools, clothing, art, legends, and rituals, as well as language families. “. . . a first-class, accurate, well-illustrated reference work.” — American Reference Books Annual (270 original color illustrations, 11 color maps) #5241 (Softcover, 368 pp., 8 1/2” x 11”)) $29

Leave A Lasting Legacy

A last will or bequest is a beautiful way to leave a lasting legacy for your Native American brothers and sisters here in the desert Southwest. Each year, the Southwest Indian Foundation is blessed with wills and bequests from generous individuals like you that allow us to continue our critical work. From education and home renovation to alcohol rehabilitation and shelters for women and children — wills and bequests are a critical fuel for our many self-help initiatives. To receive more information on leaving the Foundation in your will, write us at: Southwest Indian Foundation, Post Office Box 307, Gallup, NM, 87305.
A. White Cloud Kachina – The White Cloud Kachina represents the beauty of the clouds in the sky and the monumental importance of rain to provide moisture for the crops here in the arid Southwest. The White Cloud Kachina is holding up a small container of corn as a reminder of his critical connection to the bounty of the pueblo harvest. #8110 (Approx. 14" Tall) $99

H. Horse, Follow Closely: Native American Horsemanship – Horse and rider are one. Theirs is a relationship of trust, harmony, and respect born of a way of life that is all but lost. One man puts it within our grasp again. In this magnificent book, Ga-WaNi Pony Boy illustrates the traditional training methods — methods that are steeped in common sense and the age-old wisdom of his ancestors, America’s first great horsemen. The stunning full-color photographs by renowned European photographer Gabrielle Boisselle and the simple eloquence of the text takes us back to the days when horse training was not merely about getting results but about creating a bond for life. An inspiration for riders and a feast for horse and Native American culture enthusiasts, Horse, Follow Closely: Native American Horsemanship forges a relationship with readers that few books can ever hope to achieve. #5287 (Softcover, 136 pp., over 80 color photos) $29

A. New Mexico Kicks On Route 66 – Route 66, affectionately called “The Mother Road,” opened in 1926 and was decommissioned in 1984, and played a prominent role in the transformation of the Nation. Now an international legend through popular culture and the arts, Route 66 has become the road trip of a lifetime. New Mexico Kicks on Route 66 takes you on a tour through all the fascinating places along the New Mexico stretch, steeped in the rich and diverse history of the Land of Enchantment. Author Martin Link guides you through time across the land populated by mammoth hunters, Pueblo farmers, traders, Spanish conquistadors, army cavalrmen, caravans of settlers, railroaders, and the scientists who created the atom bomb. Through Larry Lindahl’s amazing images, you’ll encounter museums full of classic cars, the Inter-Tribal Indian Ceremonial, a hot air balloon fiesta, and all the glitz and glamour of the Route 66 era in hotels, diners, and more. From the indigenous people who first developed the area, to the folks who envisioned and created America’s Highway, and to all the colorful personalities in between and since, this is a New Mexico historical guidebook like no other! #6951 (Softcover, 96 pages) $13

Set of Both New Mexico & Arizona Route 66 Books $24

B. Arizona Kicks On Route 66 – Arizona is home to the longest intact portion of Route 66, stretching 158 miles from west of Ash Fork to the California border. In words and pictures, Roger Naylor and Larry Lindahl explore the history and nostalgia surrounding the Mother Road, and the great swaths of Arizona that it passes through. They describe a wealth of spectacular and easy side trips that surround the highway. The first thing that you notice is the photography. The collection of images alone is worth the price of the book. But don’t skip the words. Naylor weaves a tapestry of descriptions and personal stories that is both engaging and humorous. Where else would you read a sidebar on the badlands of the Painted Desert and find the scene defined as “filled with mad, startling swirls of color, like Van Gogh emptying his pockets at the police station.” Arizona, the birthplace of Route 66, is where you can still get your kicks. #6952 (Softcover, 96 pages) $13

A. Hiawatha and the Peacemaker – Born of Mohawk and Cayuga descent, musical icon Robbie Robertson learned the story of Hiawatha and his spiritual guide, the Peacemaker, as part of the Iroquois oral tradition. Now he shares the same gift of storytelling with a new generation. Hiawatha was a strong and articulate Mohawk who was chosen to translate the Peacemaker’s message of unity for the five warring Iroquois nations during the 14th century. This message not only succeeded in uniting the tribes but also forever changed how the Iroquois governed themselves—a blueprint for democracy that would later inspire the authors of the U.S. Constitution. Caldecott Honor–winning illustrator David Shannon brings the journey of Hiawatha and the Peacemaker to life with arresting oil paintings. Together, Robertson and Shannon have crafted a new children’s classic that will both educate and inspire readers of all ages. Includes a CD featuring a new, original song written and performed by Robbie Robertson. #5373 (Hardcover, 48 pp.) $22

A. Four Corners USA – Way out on the Colorado Plateau, two lines cross at right angles, forming the borders of four states. You can stand on this spot and be in Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah all at the same time. This book is about the area roughly 150 miles around that point, a land of fantastic rock formations, ancient dwellings, and diverse cultures. Multiple national parks and monuments have been set aside to preserve the Four Corners wonders. And nature’s rainbow of colors paints these vast landscapes and barren badlands where sandstone rock sculptures grace majestic canyons. Join us in a tour of these remarkable places and learn the history of this unforgettable land and its people. “A beautiful and important book, packed to the brim with historical insights, useful tidbits for travelers, and, best of all, a profound appreciation for this unique part of America’s West. The stunning photographs dramatically reflect the majesty and mystery of this unusual landscape and the resilient people who call it home. This is a volume to savor from your armchair or to inspire a trip to see these places firsthand.” — New York Times best-selling author, Anne Hillerman #6964 (Softcover, 104 pp.) $17

B. The Mystery of Chaco Canyon DVD – Located in New Mexico, Chaco Canyon is one of the most extensive prehistoric ruins in America. For years archaeologists have assumed that Chaco was primarily an ancient trading center. Now, this nationally broadcast film (narrated by Robert Redford and first aired on PBS,) shows that Chaco was instead a complex ceremonial center, harmonized by extraordinary astronomical alignments of buildings and roads, and elegant light and shadow markings. Aerial and time lapse footage, computer modeling, and interviews with scholars show how the Chacoan culture oriented and located its major buildings in relation to the sun and moon. A fascinating documentary! #6932 (56 Minutes) $29

C. Grizzly Bear Spirit Blanket – Sue Coccia is an award winning Northwest artist, from Edmonds, Washington. H. Whispers Of The Wolf – “Ahrooooooo” went the cry. It was the call of the wolf pack. A young boy named Two Birds heard it, and so did his wolf. Two Birds had found the abandoned wolf pup, and they had grown up together. Now, the wild was calling, and Two Birds had a choice to make. Struggling with a mix of emotions, he must decide whether his love for the wolf is greater than his need to be near it. Will Two Birds learn to let go — not just of the wolf, but also of his own fears? Whispers of the Wolf is a beautiful picture book set around 500 years ago among the Pueblo Indians of the desert Southwest. A heartwarming piece of historical fiction, it weaves together themes of community, tradition, self-esteem, and respect for all life, creating a realistic portrait of a culture that continues to exert a vibrant, living influence today. Beautifully illustrated by Rosemary Lonewolf, an American Indian artist of the Santa Clara Pueblo Tribe. #5378 (Hardcover, 40 pages) $17

B. Buffalo Bird Girl – This fascinating picture book biography tells the childhood story of Buffalo Bird Woman, a Hidatsa Indian born around 1839. Through her true story, readers will learn what it was like to be part of this Native American community that lived along the Missouri River in the Dakotas, a society that depended more on agriculture for food and survival than on hunting. Children will relate to Buffalo Bird Girl’s routine of chores and playing with friends, and they will also be captivated by her lifestyle and the dangers that came with it. Using as a resource the works of Gilbert L. Wilson, who met Buffalo Bird Woman and transcribed her life’s story in the early 20th century, award-winning author-illustrator S. D. Nelson has captured the spirit of Buffalo Bird Girl and her lost way of life. The book includes a historical timeline. #5371 (Hardcover, 50 pages) $20

It’s no secret that Native Americans are incredibly gifted artistically. But because of geographical isolation, it’s often a problem to find a viable market to showcase their handcrafted goods. So in 1990, we launched the Indian Craft Catalog that you are holding in your hands. In addition to providing a national market for local Indian craftsmen, the profits from this catalog go directly back to the Native Americans themselves in the form of the many philanthropic programs that SWIF sponsors and supports. As we like to say: “Made in America – By the First Americans.”

A Hand Up Not A Handout
Over the past 50 years, the Southwest Indian Foundation has seen considerable growth. But we have always strived to maintain the original intent of our Franciscan founder. First, to recognize the great human potential of each individual; and second, to offer those in need a hand up – not a handout. The SWIF philosophy is strongly opposed to the “handout” approach. To our way of thinking, a mere handout destroys a person’s dignity and self-initiative. We believe that true charity must emphasize self-help in order to restore pride and independence. Only in this way can we truly build a better America for the First Americans.

A. America’s National Parks on DVD – From Yellowstone to the Grand Canyon to Denali and beyond — experience America’s National Parks, breathtakingly filmed in High Definition! Dennis Burkhardt has not only filmed every national park during his lifetime, he is the first to film all 58 parks in High Definition. As a young man, Burkhardt served as a National Park interpreter. As a producer and director for Questar, PBS, Discovery Channel, NBC, and the Travel Channel, Burkhardt has filmed in Nepal, Australia, Alaska, Hawaii, Cook Islands, Easter Island, France, England, Kenya, India, Egypt, and China — documenting cultures, peoples, wildlife, and landscapes. This incredible series delivers the entirety of America’s National Parks like never before! #6944 (3 DVDs, over 6 hours) $39

B. The Ancient Southwest: A Guide to Archaeological Sites – Gregory McNamee guides you on a memorable tour through 50 national and state parks, monuments, and other cherished sites in the modern American Southwest. Simultaneously, he leads you far back in time to the eras when the earliest human beings lived in what is now Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, and Utah. These ancient people left intriguing clues: pueblos, tools, pottery, jewelry, baskets, petroglyphs, pictographs, clothing, kivas, and weavings. From such evidence, archaeologists can reconstruct sophisticated cultures with advanced knowledge of astronomy, architecture, agriculture, and art. In more than 130 spectacular photographs, Larry Lindahl captures the essence of these remarkable locations, including Mesa Verde National Park, Canyon de Chelly National Monument, Navajo National Monument, Chaco Culture National Historic Park, Cedar Mesa National Monument, and many more. #5376 (Softcover, 96 pages) $17

A Child’s Best Friend

All children deserve a good education. San Carlos, Globe, Lumberton, Farmington, San Fidel, Laguna, Crownpoint — these are just some of the remote communities in Arizona and New Mexico where our schools can be found. For over 30 years, we have made education a top priority. We have 15 mission schools in and around the local reservations that we support both through school grants and individual tuition assistance. In a depressed and isolated desert region, a sound education is a child’s best friend.

G. Killers of the Flower Moon – In the 1920s, the richest people per capita in the world were members of the Osage Indian nation in Oklahoma. After oil was discovered beneath their land, they rode in chauffeured automobiles, built mansions, and sent their children to study in Europe. Then, one by one, the Osage began to be killed off. . . . In Killers of the Flower Moon, (a New York Times Bestseller and National Book Award Finalist), David Grann revisits a shocking series of crimes that eventually became one of the first major homicide investigations of the newly formed FBI. Based on years of research and startling new evidence, the book is a masterpiece of narrative nonfiction, as each step in the investigation reveals a series of sinister secrets and reversals. But more than that, it is a searing indictment of the callousness and prejudice toward American Indians that allowed the murderers to operate with impunity for so long. Killers of the Flower Moon is an utterly compelling work of non-fiction. #6965 (Softcover, 352 pp., photos) $19

“Sleeping Beauty Turquoise Jewelry
One of the most sought after semi-precious stones, Sleeping Beauty Turquoise is revered for its pure sky-blue color. The Navajo were among the first to mine the stone, using hot coals to heat the boulders and then splashing them with cold water. The sudden temperature change would cause the boulders to fracture, exposing the prized turquoise beneath. In our jewelry pictured here, we have coupled the gorgeous sky-blue stone (mined in nearby Globe, Arizona) with classic Sterling Silver Beads.

“...I have purchased items from this foundation for many years and am always pleased with the cost and quality of my purchases.” — Iris H, Dallas, TX
A. The Trail Of Tears – This deeply moving, high-definition feature DVD documents the forced removal in 1838 of the Cherokee Nation from the southeastern United States to Oklahoma. The Jacksonian policy of removal led to a brutal, cross-country trek in which nearly a quarter of the tribal citizens died from hunger, exposure, disease and sheer exhaustion. Wes Studi, the well-known Cherokee actor (Last of the Mohicans), presents the documentary film, speaking on camera in his native tongue (with subtitles). Noted actor James Earl Jones, who is of blended African and Cherokee heritage provides the narration. They are supported by the celebrity voices of actor James Garner, singer Crystal Gayle, actor John Buttram and former Virginia Gov. Douglas Wilder reading original diary excerpts, while a host of historical experts from major universities provide commentary. #5288 (115 Minutes) $35

B. The Beekeeper's Bible – The Beekeeper's Bible is as much an ultimate guide to the practical essentials of beekeeping as it is a beautiful almanac to be read from cover to cover. Part history book, part handbook, and part cookbook, this illustrated tome covers every facet of the ancient hobby of beekeeping, from how to manage hives safely to harvesting one's own honey, and ideas for how to use honey and beeswax. Detailed instructions for making candles, furniture, beauty products, and nearly 100 honey-themed recipes are included. Fully illustrated with how-to photography and unique etchings, any backyard enthusiast or gardener can confidently dive into beekeeping with this book in hand (or daydream about harvesting their own honey while relaxing in the comfort of an armchair). “An elegant, information-packed addition to the library of the most serious beekeeper.” — Better Homes & Gardens Country Gardens #6985 (Hardcover, 412 pages) $39

Bringing It Home

For more than thirty years, the Southwest Indian Foundation has employed a Navajo work crew to conduct home renovations and weatherization for needy Indian families in the area. In addition to supplying the necessary labor, we also provide the raw materials, though we stipulate that the homeowners make an “in kind” contribution to the project as well. Moreover, we often serve as a catalyst with other non-profit organizations and Navajo Tribal entities to address “special needs” situations.

A. Black Elk’s Vision: A Lakota Story – Black Elk’s Vision provides a unique perspective on American history. Black Elk was a Lakota-Oglala medicine man who lived from 1863 until 1950. The cousin of Crazy Horse, Black Elk was involved in the battles of the Little Bighorn and Wounded Knee. He also travelled to New York and Europe as part of Buffalo Bill’s Wild West show. Most important, however, was the vision he had as a young boy, which shaped his life. Through the medicine man’s own words, as well as historical documentation, author S.D. Nelson brings to life what it was like to be Native American in the mid to late 19th century and early 20th century. The native people found their land overrun by the Wha-shi-choos or White Man, the buffalo slaughtered for sport, and their people gathered onto reservations. Interspersing archival images with his own artwork, Nelson conveys how Black Elk clung to his childhood vision, which planted the seeds to help his people—and all people—understand their place in the Circle of Life. #6946 (Hardcover, 48 pages) $22

A. G I Joe: Navajo Code Talker – “Request Air Support!” “Attack by Machine Gun!” This dynamic, talking G I Joe speaks seven different phrases — in both Navajo and English! The complete equipment list includes a camouflage-covered helmet, web belt, hand phone set, backpack radio, shirt, pants, boots, and M-1 rifle. Also included in this Deluxe Edition (not available in any store or catalog) is a handsome 3” Embroidered Iron-On Patch featuring the famous silhouette of the Marines hoisting the flag on Iwo Jima and proudly identifying you as a “Junior Navajo Code Talker.” And to help you master the Code, we’ve also included a sturdy, laminated list of over 200 authentic Code Words (stamped “Top Secret – Confidential”) actually used by the original Navajo Code Talkers, including the English word, the Navajo equivalent, and the literal Navajo translation! Did you know the literal translation for “tank destroyer” is “tortoise killer”? Now you can write secret messages to your friends in Navajo Code! Not available anywhere else! #8322 (G I Joe: 11” Tall) $39

B. Warriors: Navajo Code Talkers – “My mother would not let me join the armed forces, she said I was too young (I was sixteen). Six months later I was drafted. I was trained as a code talker . . .” — Frank Chee Willetto. Meet 75 of the surviving Code Talkers through their personal stories and photos. A fascinating and beautiful book! #5317 (Softcover, 107 pp.) $20

C. Navajo Code Talker Manual – From Navajo men in service to their country came an extraordinary weapon in the Pacific Arena of World War II. Twenty-nine Navajo Marines were recruited to adapt their language into a code so secret and difficult that the Germans and Japanese could never break it. The code grew, and so did the numbers of Code Talkers, forever altering the course of the War and American history. This unique, interactive book includes a brief history of the Navajo Code Talkers, a lesson on learning and using the code, and a four-page foldout of the original Code Talker dictionary. Inspired by authentic WWII Marine field manuals. Vertical binding and kraft paper used to simulate historical feel. #6971 (Hardcover 7.5” X 11”) $15

D. The Navajo Code Talkers – Not only World War II buffs, but anyone with a sense of history will marvel at this incredible story of the Navajo Code Talkers. This dramatic, thoroughly researched work explores the unique contribution of Navajo Indians in devising and implementing a secret code using their native tongue — a code that was never broken. A moving story of human courage and purpose! One of our best sellers! #535 (Softcover, 170 pp., w/photos) $17

E. Navajo Code Talkers DVD – This brilliant and fast-paced video brings to life the compelling story of the Navajo Code Talkers whose amazing skills played a vital role in WWII from Guadalcanal to Iwo Jima to Okinawa. (55 minutes) #6933 DVD $29

F. Chester Nez and the Unbreakable Code – As a young Navajo boy, Chester Nez had to leave the reservation and attend boarding school, where he was taught that his native language and culture were useless. But Chester refused to give up his heritage. Years later, during World War II, Chester—and other Navajo men like him—was recruited by the US Marines to use the Navajo language to create an unbreakable military code. Suddenly the language he had been told to forget was needed to fight a war. This powerful picture book biography contains backmatter including a timeline and a portion of the Navajo code, and also depicts the life of an actual Navajo Code Talker while capturing the importance of heritage. #6963 (Hardcover, 32 pp.) $17
A. Our Lady of Guadalupe Blanket – On December 9, 1531, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to a Mexican peasant named Juan Diego, leaving an image of herself imprinted on his cloak. This miraculous tilma survives today at the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe near Mexico City, where 20 million pilgrims visit each year! We are proud to reproduce this miraculous image on this high-quality Blanket of 100% Cotton. This blanket is proudly woven in America using advanced Jacquard weaving techniques, ensuring vibrant colors and a rich, comfortable feel. #2916 (54" x 70") $75 Please allow 2 to 3 weeks for delivery.

B. Guadalupe Mysteries: Deciphering the Code – Our Lady of Guadalupe is the most beloved symbol of Mexican Catholicism, and devotion to her is widespread in the USA. While she has protected and encouraged Mexican Catholics for several centuries, believers and even nonbelievers the world over are inspired and intrigued by her. Millions of pilgrims visit her shrine in Mexico City every year. Both Pope John Paul II and Pope Francis have travelled there to pray for her motherly intercession. And scientists from many disciplines have studied the amazing attributes of her mysterious image. In this glorious, lavishly illustrated book, the renowned author-photographer team Grzegorz Górny and Janusz Rosikon take the reader on an illustrated pilgrimage to Our Lady of Guadalupe. They tell the amazing story of her apparition to Juan Diego in 1531 and its dramatic impact upon the destiny of an entire people. They interview the various experts on the image and reveal its symbolic messages, those of the past and those speaking to us today. #6989 (Hardcover, 280 pp.) $35

A. Last Stand At Little Big Horn DVD – The Battle of Little Big Horn, known as “Custer’s Last Stand,” has been one of the most frequently depicted moments in American history—and one of the least understood, still shrouded in myth. The golden-haired general and his doomed 7th Cavalry have been wiped out by Indians in more than 40 films. Yet the battle that left no white survivors also left two very different accounts of Little Big Horn: one white; one Native. Using journals, oral accounts and Indian ledger drawings as well as archival and feature films, a Native American novelist, James Welch (Winter in the Blood, The Indian Lawyer) and a white filmmaker, Paul Stekler (Eyes on the Prize) combine talents to examine this watershed moment from two views: from that of the Lakota Sioux, Cheyenne and Crow who lived on the Great Plains for generations; and from that of the white settlers who pushed west across the continent. Pulitzer Prize-winning Native American writer Scott Momaday narrates. #6981 (60 minutes) $20

B. Fry Bread – Told in lively and powerful verse by debut author Kevin Noble Maillard, Fry Bread is an evocative depiction of a modern Native American family, vibrantly illustrated by Pura Belpre Award winner and Caldecott Honoree Juana Martinez-Neal. “A wonderful and sweet book [that] takes a staple food of many tribes across the country and uses it to think about family, history, memory and community. . . Lovely stuff.” — The New York Times Book Review

A. The Backyard Birdwatcher's Bible – The Backyard Birdwatcher's Bible is that rare type of book, one that is as packed with information as it is pleasing to look at. The latest in a successful line of "bibles," following The Beekeeper's Bible and The Botanical Bible, this new volume has the broadest appeal yet. An elegant aesthetic is paired with practical tips on identifying, attracting, and caring for backyard birds, as well as crafting bird-friendly gardens and bird houses. With additional sections focused on everything from the bird life cycle to bird behavior, symbolism, and meaning in art, this authoritative book is brimming with engaging answers to all of your birdwatching questions. #6991 (Hardcover, 416 pages) $39

B. The Warrior Tradition DVD – The Warrior Tradition tells the astonishing, heartbreaking, inspiring, and largely untold story of Native Americans in the United States military. The film chronicles the accounts of Native American warriors from their own points of view—stories of service and pain, of courage and fear. The old duality of the Noble Savage/helpless victim has dominated our cultural portrait of Native Americans for fifty years. But it's a more complicated story. Indian warriors have a wide mix of emotions and motives—patriotism, pride, rage, courage, practicality, and spirituality all mingle with an abiding respect for tribal, familial, and national traditions. Even the numbers tell a story. During World War I, not all Native Americans were even citizens of the United States and couldn't be drafted; yet more than 12,000 Indian men volunteered. Even in an unpopular war in Vietnam, 90 percent of the 42,000 Native people who served were volunteers. The roll call of valor is endless. But there's more to the story than heroism, and more than one way to be a warrior. #6979 (55 min.) $25
